Americas

- Weak plastics, paper, ceramics and paints markets
- Good performance in filtration, life science and agriculture markets
- Acquisition in April of Cornerstone ($12m annual revenue), producer of high-quality perlite in North America

EMEA

- Good performance of most consumers markets (filtration, agriculture, food and pharma) and board packaging
- Automotive-related segments, paper and construction negatively impacted
- Construction-related segments first to show signs of recovery towards the end of the guarter

APAC

- Graphite & carbon for mobile energy, polymers, calcium carbonates for food packaging and medical applications held up well
- Ceramics, building & infrastructure and other markets still negatively affected by the pandemic in Q2

High Temperature Solutions

- Slowdown of economic activity severely impacting the iron & steel and foundry sectors in all regions
- Postponement of renovation projects in the petrochemical, boiler and incinerator industries
- Closing of the acquisition of Hysil, the leading Indian producer of calcium silicate boards used for thermal insulation projects (€5 million in annual revenue)

Refractory, Abrasives & Construction

- Declining refractory and abrasives markets, as a result of the sharp decline of automotive and iron & steel production
- Building and infrastructure segment (specialty cements) more impacted in the second quarter, especially in Europe and at the end of the quarter in the USA

Quarterly 2019 revenue has been restated to reflect the decision in the first quarter 2020 to recognize the Kaolin business revenue by product destination, instead of the previously adopted reporting by product origin. As a consequence, the Kaolin business revenue which was entirely recognized within the Performance Minerals Americas business area is now allocated to the Performance Minerals Americas, EMEA and APAC business areas based on the destination of sales. Historic data have been restated accordingly.
