Americas

- Strong rebound of paints, rubber, polymers and ceramic markets driven by construction recovery
- Resilient filtration and life science markets
- Weak paper and board market
- Integration of Cornerstone ($12m annual revenue), producer of high-quality perlite in North America

EMEA

- Rebound in construction segments (paint & coating),
- Recovery in automotive starts to materialize (plastics, absorbents)
- Resilience in consumers goods (pharma, food)
- Demand for paper remains depressed
(1) The Kaolin business revenue which was entirely recognized within the Performance Minerals Americas business area has been allocated to the Performance Minerals Americas, EMEA and APAC business areas based on the destination of sales since January 1, 2020. See appendix.

High Temperature Materials & Solutions: I&S, industrial markets still weak in Q3

High Temperature Solutions

- Improved trend in Q3 due to the gradual recovery of foundry and thermal sectors in EMEA
- Iron and Steel production still at low levels in Europe and USA
- Integration of the acquisition of Hysil, a leading Indian producer of calcium silicate boards used for thermal insulation projects ( $€ 5$ million in annual revenue)

Refractory, Abrasives & Construction

- Refractory and abrasives markets remain under pressure as a result of continued weakness in iron & steel production
- Strong recovery of the building and infrastructure segment (specialty cements) in the third quarter

Current EBITDA margin at $18.1 \%$ in Q3 thanks to significant costs savings

3 Outlook

Alessandro Dazza - Chief Executive Officer

Investing for future growth: geography and capacity expansion

External developments

- Agreement for the acquisition of a $60 \%$ majority stake in the Haznedar group
- Turkish-based high-quality monolithic refractories and refractory bricks manufacturer
- Cost competitive production base strategically located between Europe, Middle-East and Africa
- USD 64 m in revenue ( $40 \%$ from exports) and USD 17 m in EBITDA in 2019
- Acquisition of Sunward Refractories
- Taiwanese producer of high temperature refractory solutions with strong position in Asian markets
- Expected revenue in 2021: USD 15 m

Internal developments

- €35 million investment in the production of synthetic graphite in Bodio, Switzerland

Construction of a new production line for high-purity synthetic graphite materials and solutions

- Next step to supply growing demand from battery manufacturers in Asia, Europe and North-America, who are rapidly increasing their output

Outlook: gradual sales recovery subject to macroeconomic uncertainties; continued focus on costs and cash generation

- End markets expected to continue recovering, but pace subject to the impact of the sanitary situation on the economy, especially in Europe
- Continued focus on cost savings and cash generation also in Q4
- Significant step towards the sale of the North American talc assets to eliminate risk of further financial impact on Imerys balance sheet
- Targeted capacity expansions and bolt-on acquisitions to support future growth of the Group
- Imerys customer centric organization, as well as strong liquidity and sound financial structure, to allow the Group to take full advantage of the recovery of end markets

| Performance Minerals | 623 | 621 | 597 | 575 | 2,415 |

Quarterly 2019 revenue has been restated to reflect the decision in the first quarter 2020 to recognize the Kaolin business revenue by product destination, instead of the previously adopted reporting by product origin. As a consequence, the Kaolin business revenue which was entirely recognized within the Performance Minerals Americas business area is now allocated to the Performance Minerals Americas, EMEA and APAC business areas based on the destination of sales. Historic data have been restated accordingly.
